

MAREGA PROJECT SYMPOSIUM in USUKI

The Fascination of the Archival Materials of Bungo Christians Collected by Father Mario Marega in the Vatican Library

Saturday, the 1st of November, 2014
1:30 PM ~ 4:20PM

Usuki-city Public Hall

Organized by Marega Project

Institutions consist the project team

National Institutes for the Humanities

National Institute of Japanese Literature

National Museum of Japanese History

The Historiographical Institute, the University of Tokyo

Oita Prefecture Ancient Sages Historical Archives

Vatican Library (Biblioteca Apostolica Vaticana)

Co-hosted by Oita Prefectural Board of Education, Usuki city Board of Education

Supported by Kirishitan Nanban-Bunka Koryu Kyotei Kyogikai <The Council for Exchanging Kirishitan and Namban Historical Culture >

[Kunisaki-city, Hiji-machi, Oita-city, Usuki-city, Tsukumi-city, Taketa-city]

●PROGRAM●

13:30 Opening

Opening Remarks by Organizer

Yuichiro Imanishi (Executive Director, National Institute of the Humanities, Director-general, National Institute of Japanese Literature)

Opening Remarks by Organizer

Monsignor Cesare Pasini (the Prefeto, Biblioteca Apostolica Vaticana)

Interpreted by Kosuke Kuniishi (Kyoto University)

Welcome message

Goro Nakano (the Mayor of Usuki- city)

13:50 Introduction

Kazuo Ohtomo (Representative of Marega Project,
National Institute of Japanese Literature)

13:55 Session I

Chronology of Marega fonds in Vatican library

Delio Vania Proverbio (Biblioteca Apostolica Vaticana)

Interpreted by Kosuke Kuniishi (Kyoto University)

14:50 Session II

Preserving and Sharing Fascination of Archival Materials collected by Father Marega ~Introduction of Research Methodology and Progress of the Survey~

Yoko Matsui (Historiographical Institute, the University of Tokyo)

15:15-15:25 Break

15:25 Session III

Generating System and Provenance of anti-Christian Documents in Early Modern Bungo

Akihiro Sato (Oita Prefecture Ancient Sages Historical Archives)

15:55 Discussion with Project Members and Audience

Coordinated by Silvio Vita (Kyoto University of Foreign Studies)

Hiroshi Kurushima (National Museum of Japanese History)

16:20 Closing Remarks

Kazuki Iguchi (The former president of Kyoto Prefectural University)